

Rose Garden Tea Room

The space seen here is the old Tea Room Restaurant of the original Macy's. This rendering envisions a multi-purpose 5,800 gsf space allowing for general sessions, catered events, small expo space and registration hall for larger tradeshows/consumer shows. Behind the glass windows would be a rose garden providing seasonal color and a marketable wedding chapel complimenting the existing ballroom as a wedding reception hall.

