The Music Man, a much-beloved musical, takes place in a small, close-knit town in Iowa. Trouble begins for the town when a con man posing as a brilliant bandleader arrives in town with an elaborate moneymaking scheme. He wants to recruit all the boys in town to form a band, pocket the cash for instruments and uniforms he collects, and then skip town. However, a prim librarian and piano teacher in the town whom he falls in love with, sees through him. Come see the show to find out how this con man risks being caught to win the librarian's love, and how it all works out.

The Music Man with lyrics and music by Meredith Willson and book by Meredith Willson and Franklin Lacey is a two-act play with a great number and range of roles that's described "as all-American as apple pie and as charming as can be."

Directed by Laura Duttweiler, The Music Man, with a cast of over 49 men, women and children including music director/accompanist Julie Conrad, choreographer Elise Gomez, and dance captain Sara Norsworthy Jeanis, is a crowd-pleasing show appropriate for all age levels.

The Music Man is one of two shows The Front Porch Players will submit for consideration for a Metropolitan Atlanta Theatre Award in 2019.
